3 Guidance Notes

- Make a Statutory Off Road Notification (SORN) declaration if the licence disc for your vehicle expired on or after 31 January 1998. If you fail to do so you could be fined up to £1,000. There is no need to make a SORN declaration for a vehicle while a licence disc is in force.
- If you sell, permanently export or scrap the vehicle you must tell DVLA. The notes on the Vehicle Registration Document explain what to do.
- This form should only be completed by the Keeper of a vehicle. This declaration is valid for twelve months, unless you re-license, sell, permanently export or scrap the vehicle before the twelve months have expired. We will normally send you a reminder when your Statutory Off Road Notification (SORN) declaration is about to expire.

4 Declaration

- I declare I am the registered keeper of this vehicle and it will not be used or parked on a public road from the date given above, until a licence is applied for.
- I declare that I have checked the information provided on this form and I believe it is correct.
